() Definition of photography in black and white (monochrome):

A black and white work fitting from the very dark grey (black) to the very clear grey (white) is a monochrome work with the various shades of grey. A black and white work toned entirely in a single colour will remain a monochrome work able to stand in the black and white category; such a work can be reproduced in black and white in the catalogue of a salon under FIAP Patronage. On the other hand, a black and white work modified by a partial toning or by the addition of one colour becomes a colour work (polychrome) to stand in the colour category; such a work requires colour reproduction in the catalogue of a salon under FIAP Patronage.

Participation is open to all photographers residing in Italy and worldwide, the FIAF members or not, without distinction between amateurs and professionals.

All the parts of the image have to be photographed by the author who is holding the copyright of all works submitted.

By the sole act of submitting his/her images or files to a salon under FIAP Patronage, the entrant accepts without exception and with no objection the following terms:

- that the submitted images can be investigated by FIAP to establish if these obey to FIAP regulations and definitions even if the entrant is not a member of FIAP
- that FIAP will use any means at its disposal for this undertaking,
- that any refusal to cooperate with FIAP or any refusal to submit the original files as captured by the camera, or failure to provide sufficient evidence, will be sanctioned by FIAP,

- that in case of sanctions following the non-compliance with FIAP regulations, the name of the entrant will be released in any form useful to inform the breaches of the rules.

Participation in the competition, with the mere fact of sending the photographs to the organizers, constitutes full and unconditional acceptance of this regulation, as well as of the FIAF Competition Regulations, and in particular, but not limited to the integral and unconditional acceptance of chapters 4 (Presentable photographs) and 5 (Sanctions) with all their paragraphs. The complete text of the FIAF Competition Rules, which is the responsibility of the participant to know, is available on the FIAF website (www.fiaf.net) and can also be requested by mail to the FIAF itself at the following address: ufficiamentoconcorsi@fiaf.net ". Participants in the Competition, both Members and non-FIAF Members, grant to FIAF the possibility of managing their participation data and images presented, both for the purposes of managing the FIAF Statistics and the FIAF Sites appointed to collect and disseminate the results of the Competitions from it sponsored and recommended and of the relative images awarded and admitted.

The author signatory of the entry form is directly and fully responsible for the existing image.

The organizer of the Association members and various collaborators cannot participate in sections valid for the FIAF statistic.

In competition they are present, respectively, a projected images Monochrome section and a section COLOR projected images.

The single author cannot submit more than four works for single section.

Size of Projected Images:

The format of the digital image file must have the longer side of 2500 pixels, they must be presented with the .JPG extension and sRGB color profile.
